

Student Name

Principle of Communications 1113

Professor Neal

Use Current Date

Informative Speech Outline

- I. (This is where your thesis statement goes, do not write thesis statement).The purpose of my speech is to explain an incident that defined a moment in my life when I did not give up.
- II. (Main Point #1 d not write main point #1) The day that defined me was September 8, 2011.
 - A. I had a horse fall and crush my ankle and broke my neck.
 - B. The feelings of imminent death were running rampant through my mind as I lay on the ground alone.
- III. (Main Point #2 d not write main point #2) The first week after my injury was horrifying.
 - A. The pain was unbearable.
 - B. I did not know where I was the first few days in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.
- IV. (Main Point #3 d not write main point #3) The recovery period was brutal.
 - A. The injury I suffered affected everyone in my family.
 - B. Recovering from the mental injuries are much tougher than the physical injuries.
- V. (Conclusion, do not write conclusion) The injury changed my life, I will never walk the same, but I will never give up.