

1. Summarize relevant critical success leadership competencies required by health care organizations.

Summarizes relevant critical success leadership competencies required by health care organizations and considers the consequences of leadership that lacks these competencies.

2. Compare personal leadership competencies to the critical success leadership competencies needed within the health care industry.

Compares and contrasts personal leadership competencies to the critical success leadership competencies needed within the health care industry.

3. Construct an individual leadership development plan that contains specific action steps, a timeline, and performance indicators and measures.

Constructs a detailed individual leadership development plan that contains specific action steps, a timeline, and performance indicators and measures. Explains how each action step will contribute to leadership competency development.

4. Explain how an individual leadership development plan aligns with industry and organizational needs.

Explains and analyzes how each action step of an individual leadership development plan aligns with industry and organizational needs.

5. Write coherently, concisely, logically, and with strong support from relevant professional resources, in an appropriate format, with correct grammar, usage, and mechanics as expected of a health care administration professional.

Writes coherently, substantively, concisely, logically, and with strong support from relevant professional resources, in a consistently appropriate format, with correct grammar, usage, and mechanics as expected of a health care administration professional.